Low Income Cut-off Standards (LICO)

Low income status is determined using the Low Income Cut-Off (LICO) Standards as defined by Statistics Canada. Low income status can be determined using family or household income. The family concept used is the economic family, that is, all persons living in the same dwelling and related by blood, marriage, common-law relationship or adoption. A household is defined as a person or group of persons residing in a dwelling.

To view the LICO Standards please refer to the Statistics Canada website at: (before tax measures) or (after tax measures) to verify the current Low Income Cut-Offs. Tables are listed by year, scroll to the bottom of the webpage to view the most current LICO information.
